

METROPOLIS

Directed by Fritz Lang 115 minutes 1926 Black & White
Starring: Alfred Abel, Brigitte Helm, Rudolf Klein-Rogge.

The classic science-fiction spectacle of the year 2000. One of the best films to come out of Germany's UFA studios, METROPOLIS has become one of the definitive science fiction films with its incredible city of the future, excellent special effects, and underlying story of love against a background of social conflict. Silent with Music
Licensed for private home use only. Other uses prohibited

15

DO NOT TOUCH THE INSIDE

Hollywood Home Theatre presents the finest motion pictures from Hollywood's past and present.

If your taste is drama, comedy, horror, science fiction, musicals, or documentary — you are sure to find something of interest in our extensive video library. Ask your local video dealer for title listings.

HOLLYWOOD HOME THEATER
A Division of Budget Video Inc.
Design Concept by: David Ichikawa
COPYRIGHT © 1980

HOLLYWOOD
HOME THEATER