DOUBLE FEATURE

LADIES & GENTLEMEN the Rolling Stones
 A rock n' roll delight. This week features a double feature headlined by the film version of the Rolling Stones tour last year. We promise a good sound system for this as well as the new documentary on the life of Janis Joplin. Gopher Baroque Audio will make as loud as you can stand.
ZARDOZ / SCHLOCK OCT 17-19

THE WAY SHE WAS
JANIS
 A FILM
 THE GRADUATE
CARNAL KNOWLEDGE
OCT 20-23

DOUBLE FEATURE

BADLANDS
 The two real sleepers from last year. Both films received rave reviews but were generally back peddled by the distributor. Badlands is based on the short term murder spree of 19 year old Charles Starkweather and his 15 year old girlfriend. This film is much more than another glorification of crime.
OCT 24-26

mean streets
 The first film by Martin Scorsese was enthusiastically received in its premiere run at the Guild this summer. A very passionate and incisive look at the street life in Manhattan's "Little Italy". Starring Robert de Niro.
OCT 24-26

OUR FABULOUS FAVORITES

HAROLD and MAUDE
 Can a manic 80 year old lady and a depressive 20 year old young man find happiness? The answer gives vent to undoubtedly one of our most popular films.
