THE CABINET OF DR. CALIGARI
nosferatu
un chien andalou

The foremost example of the ability of film to shock. Un Chien Andalou made as a protest film by Salvador Dali and Luis Bunuel in 1929. Caligari made in 1919, is the precursor to practically all modern-day horror stories. Nosferatu was the first film made concerning vampires. Cabinet 7:00. Caligari 8:00. Chien 9:15.

performance.
LUCKY MAN!

Made in 1968, Performance is easily a decade ahead of its time in terms of concept and execution. Mick Jagger stars as a retired pop singer who has lost his demon, and James Fox portrays a gangster seeking a hideout — both find what they are looking for. It is without doubt the creme de la creme of cult films. Malcolm McDowell's memoirs as a coffee salesman provide the basis for this modern day Candide, directed by Lindsay Anderson. Performance (Sat Mat 2:00), 7:00. O Lucky Man (Sat Mat 4:00), 9:00.

MAY 13-14

The love story that will scare the hell out of you.

OBSESSION

Cliff Robertson and Genevieve Bujold star in Brian De Palma's tribute to Hitchcock. A beautifully photographed, elegantly acted, incredibly suspenseful, piece of film making. Obsession (Sun Mat 3:30, 5:30), 7:30, 9:30.

MAY 15-16-17

HITCHCOCK'S "SHADOW OF A DOUBT"

Uncle Charley, an eastern Bon Vivant, arrives in a small west coast town to visit relatives... or kill them? Is Uncle Charley "the Merry Widow Murderer"? Hitchcock at the top of his form, weaving his characters through a multitude of red herrings — leaving absolute everyone incriminated until... the last 5 minutes. Shadow 7:30, 9:30.

MAY 18-19

Who says Vampires are no laughing matter?
"THE FEARLESS VAMPIRE KILLERS" OR:
Pardon me, but your teeth are in my neck!
The Loved One

Comedy at its blackest is featured in this double bill with Evelyn Waugh's unusual look at the funeral business, and Polanski's biting parody of vampire films, starring Sharon Tate and Roman Polanski. Vampire Killers (Sat Mat 3:00), 7:30. Loved One (Sat Mat 5:00), 9:30.

MAY 20-21

KING OF HEARTS

In case you haven't seen it, or if you simply want to enjoy it one more time, we're proud to bring back our Perennial Pleaser, The King of Hearts. Alan Bates portrays a soldier in W.W.I. — lost between the lines, in a small French town which has been inhabited by the inmates of the local asylum. As a meditation on reality and sanity or just an exquisite piece of entertainment — the film is unequalled. King of Hearts (Sun Mat 3:30, 5:30), 7:30, 9:30.

THE LAST PICTURE SHOW

Texas never looked more desolate than it does in what is perhaps Pete Bogdanovich's finest film. Brooding black and white photography, a fine script, and totally flawless performances by the cast, are the film's highlights. Last Picture Show 7:00, 9:15.

MAY 25-26

Walkabout
FANTASTIC PLANET

The western mind unable to cope with primitive society is at the center of Nic Roeg's spectacularly photographed Walkabout. His cinematic rendering of the Australian outback remains unparalleled. The Czech animated feature Fantastic Planet opened up new doors in animation and space. Walkabout (Sat Mat 3:30), 7:30. Fantastic Planet (Sat Mat 5:30), 9:30.

MAY 27-28

A PIECE OF PLEASURE & THE CLOCKMAKER

This compelling story of a simple man forces to reassemble the fundamental values of his life is well matched with Chabrol's dark vision of the complexities of modern day male dominated marriage. Piece of Pleasure (Sun Mat 3:30), 7:30. Clockmaker (Sun Mat 5:30), 9:30.

MAY 29-30-31

Russ Meyer's "FINDERS KEEPERS LOVERS WEEPERS"

Russ Meyer's SuperVIXENS

Russ Meyer may not make great films, but he's got the market cornered on tackiness. These two films are prime examples of the genre of films Russ Meyer created and continues to perpetuate. They are light-hearted and witty farces, with predominantly large-chested women. Super Vixens 7:30. Finders 9:30.
